MAGOWAN'S WOES.

New Jersey-Oklahoma Divorce Applicant Evicted.

El Reno Star: A Trenton (N. J.) dispatch to the New York World, relates another scene in the closing chapter of the downfall of Frank A. Magowan, the ex-mayor and millionaire of Trenton, whom citizens here will remember, together with Mrs. Barnes, as sojourners in El Reno during the divorce period, about two years ago. The dispatch says, in part:

"Frank A. Magowan was turned out of his palatial home today, neck and crop. His personal effects were heaped up in the back yard, and he, himself, tranded down stairs in his nightshirt, slippers and smoking jacket by the deputy sheriffs. Among the witnesses of his humiliation were his first wife and her children. His counsel entered suit today against the sheriff for pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free been sold at aboriff's sale and Magowan had refused to vacate, and was accordingly evicted."

livered a good address tonight.
Secretary F L Wenner delivered an able address and presented his report of territorial Sunday school work.

Among other things, Mr. Wenner saic:

'In the Sunday school work, as in everything else in a new country, it is Ed R. Salter, manager for the Don statistical information.

A large portion of our Sunday schools do not take enough interest to make ports, and some even fail to send reports to me even after they have been furnished them by schools. Fr. m the letters from ministers and other workers and conversation with people from all parts of the territory I find that there are 850 Sunday schools in the territory. They have an average membership of 47, seven of whom are teachers and officers.

This gives us 5.950 teachers and officers actively at work and 34 000 schol-are—a total of 39,950 in the Sunday schools of Oklahoma This at first An article in the Kansas City Jour- glance seems a large number, and yet year, a large portion of them being the direct result of the agitation and enthusiasm of this association and convention work.

I submit herewith a tabulated statis territory, which will be very interest ing for comparison. In studying it you will find much to interest you and be surprised to find the far western counties, in most instances make a better showing comparatively than those of central and eastern Oklahoma

Fourteen county associations report, through their officers, that the Sunday school work of the county is improving and the outlook for the future is bright.
